

Welcome to the Tournament and Event Calendar for Unit 124.

Here's where you find area tournament schedules and annual Unit 124 events. For club game information please go to the club websites. Click on the title of the tournament and get additional information:

- Address for the event
- Tournament web page or flyer
- ACBL Live results (as available)
- e-Bulletin (as available)

Since this calendar is powered by Google Calendars it has all the features offered by Google.

If you have a google account you can even copy the event to your personal Google Calendar!

The default view for the calendar is LIST. We recommend this because the Week and Month views are too compressed unless viewing in full screen mode.

This Unit 124 Tournament and Events calendar is operated by Unit124 (CBA) to communicate Unit events to our membership. We do so as a convenience for our members, and to promote greater participation in Tournaments and Special Unit Events. The ACBL Tournament Calendar is the final authority on all Tournament Schedules. Event details might change from time to time. Regardless of what is published in this calendar, the Tournament Director and Tournament Chair have the final say.
